

GREETINGS FROM MARS!

Feature in Pollack Crater Dubbed “White Rock”

uahirise.org/PSP_002099_1720

Light-toned deposits here are interpreted to be hardened dust. Since other light-toned deposits on Mars are layered and thought to be sulfates, why is White Rock different in composition?