

HIGH RESOLUTION IMAGING
SCIENCE EXPERIMENT

UAHIRISE.ORG

Lunar and Planetary Laboratory

Troughs and Wind Features of the Tharsis Region

uahirise.org/ESP_021527_1960

The flat-floored troughs seen here are called “graben.” They are formed when the terrain gets pulled apart and two parallel fractures form in the bedrock.