

HIGH RESOLUTION IMAGING
SCIENCE EXPERIMENT

UAHIRISE.ORG

Lunar and Planetary Laboratory

Dramatic Lighting of Icy Flows

uahirise.org/ESP_025646_1440

This image shows flow features (tongue-shaped features in the depressions running down the slope) on the inner slope of an impact crater east of Hellas impact basin. The time of year combined with MRO's orbit and the slope combine to provide the geometry for an image with almost glancing (very low sun) illumination.