

Layers, Dunes and Cliffs in Hydræ Chasma

Hydræ Chasma is a deep, circular depression approximately 50 kilometers across, with steep walls flanked by numerous landslides and a massive scarp along its southern boundary where the surface has collapsed into this depression.