

DIVERSE MINERALS IN COPRATES CHASMA

In an enhanced color, the varying colors—shades of white, cyan, and purple—are suggestive of multiple minerals being present within the bedrock, indicating a complicated geologic history, possibly involving alteration by water.