

The Hills are Colorful in Juventae Chasma

ESP_049045_1760

There are many hills about 1 kilometer high in Juventae Chasma, which is located north of the main Valles Marineris canyon system. The floor of the canyon is covered by a sea of sand, but the hills rise above the sand. The color diversity here is exceptional, due to varying mineral compositions and good exposures.

