

Almost Like Water

ESP_057978_1875

This image in Athabasca Valles shows lava flows originating from Elysium Mons to the northwest. The lava appears to have flowed smoothly around obstructions, almost like water, forming streamlined islands. (NASA/JPL/University of Arizona, less than 5 km across.)

