

AN ICY SCARP IN THE SOUTHERN MID-LATITUDES

This enhanced color cutout shows a pit about 600 meters across that is bounded by a steep scarp on its northern side. The darker, bluer streaks extending away from the top of the scarp may have been caused by winds blowing sand out of the pit.