

COLORFUL LAYERS IN A CRATER WALL

A gradient of enhanced colors indicates diverse compositions. Clay minerals have been detected here, and one interpretation is that they formed through weathering under a wetter ancient climate.