

YOUNG FLUVIAL CHANNELS IN MARGARITIFER TERRA

Fluvial activity began in the Noachian period, likely peaked in the late Noachian-to-Hesperian, and then persisted, at least locally, into the Late Hesperian or Amazonian epoch. This time period goes back at least 4 billion years to the present.

HIRISE

uahirise.org/ESP_073995_1610